

Dear EPA,

Please consider this the Heritage Branch response to the supplement to the EIS for the Australia-Asia PowerLink Project.

The Heritage Branch has no issues with the supplement to the draft EIS. The Heritage Branch notes the work that has been done to date, and the commitments to mitigation.

If the project does progress, the proponent has formally committed to further consideration of maritime heritage issues in the documentation which is appreciated.

Regards

David

Senior Heritage Officer/Maritime Archaeologist
Heritage Branch
Community Participation and Inclusion
Territory Families, Housing and Communities