Invite to comment on Referral - Paru Road upgrade on Melville Island

Good morning,

I have reviewed the Referral for the Paru Road upgrade on Melville Island and can confirm that there are no heritage or archaeological issues associated with the proposed works. I have previously provided comments in relation to road upgrade works on Melville Island. Those comments recommended that no archaeological surveys will be required, but in the event that any archaeological sites are discovered during works, then all works in the immediate vicinity cease and Heritage Branch is contacted for comment.

Heritage Branch are satisfied that there are no further heritage issues related to this project.

Regards,

Di
